

Cromanton.

Miss Viola Cardon is visiting her sister, Mrs Lee, this week.

Rev. Wineman preached a forceful sermon here Sunday morning showing the need to love the church affectionately.

Rev. Carlisle, the new Baptist preacher of this circuit, will preach here next Saturday night and Sunday morning.

Prof Littleton and two sons, of Greensboro, Ala., with two Knowles boys for boatmen, are camping on C. W. Forbes' place near Sheephead Bayou. They seem to be enjoying to the full, hunting, fishing and bathing.

Mr Frank Kinney killed a large alligator 8 feet long in Pearl Bayou a few days ago and still there are some left.

Little Sadie Hodge has been quite sick for several days.

Hark, tinkle, tinkle, we hear wedding bells sounding clearer, and louder, they must not be far off.

Gardens have pretty generally been a source of both pleasure and profit this year, yielding their owners peas, beans, corn, egg plants, okra and tomatoes.

Mr Frank Hoskins gathered as many as two bushels of tomatoes at one time from their garden.

For some time past a sly old fox has been very troublesome among the poultry, showing a special fondness for young, tender young incubator chicks, taking fifty in one night from Mrs Fenters. He has been hunted and watched for and having a good many narrow escapes. One time our coon killing girl, Miss Francis, nearly got him. Last Saturday, P. D. Railsback got in the best shot badly wounding him, but he got away. He don't even seem willing to share those yellow legged chicks with the preacher.

Misses Dorothy and Grace Ware, of St Andrew, were visiting Misses Minnie and Lucy Hoskins last week.

Walter and Robert Parker, Lon Davis and Chas. Mashburn, of Parker, attended church Sunday.

Mr Felix, of Tampa, Fla., painted the name on Mr Ezra Kinney's launch the Stella.

Mr Vickery, of the St Andrew Bottling Works, was in town Tuesday.

Mr Littleton and sons, of Georgia, are spending a month here,

Photographer Howlett was somewhat indisposed the latter part of last week, but is now able to be about his work. He is getting out some fine work lately.

Mr Mayer, Mrs Ayers, Mrs E. P. Kinney, Mrs Hodge, Mrs E. Spicer, Mr Frank Kinney and Miss Hallie Hodge went to Millville last Thursday in Mr Bates' boat, Laida.

Ring out, O wedding bells, ring out.
Peal forth a silvery chime,
Let every note tell of "True Love"
That make two hearts one rhyme.
Let no discordant notes be heard
To mar their union,
Let perfect harmony be their's
Let them vibrate as one.

Mr Editor, if you will train your listeners in this direction, perhaps you can hear them ring before many days.

Miss Hallie Hodge visited at Mrs E. P. Kinney's Friday.

Two gentlemen, whose name we failed to learn, called on Mr P. D. Railsback Sunday. They also gave the photographer a call.

A party consisting of Misses Nina Ecker and Frances Kearns, Messrs Robert Studebaker and William Railsback attended church at Millville Sunday evening.

Mr and Mrs Ecker and little Miss Ruth Bailey called on the photographer Tuesday, and posed for a picture. It will perfectly represent Spring and Winter of life.

Mr Robt Studebaker is building himself a row boat.
